THE MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS

VOL. IX. THE MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 1913. No. 5,

THE TRACK PROSPECTS.

Just Watch Our Team Improve. Medals for the Inter-class Meet.

Our prospects for a successful season in track and field are especially bright this year. The coming meet with U. V. M., May 17, has aroused much enthusiasm and a big force of men are out daily for practice. The following roll call will give our readers some idea of the spirit shown by the fellows :

Sprints : Triggs, Cassavant, Floyd, Paulsen, Cowles.

Distance : Carpenter, Jenkins, Jones, McGuirk, Parkinson, Ratti, Robertson, English, McCloskey, Weaver, Maurice, Lamere, Wilson, Schwarzwalder, Parker, Salisbury.

Jumps : Bump, Culver, Dade, Kron, Paulsen, Oscar Rogers, Eugene Rogers, Floyd, Atwood, Locklin, Coonerty.

Hurdles : Floyd, Culver, Dade, Atwood.

Weights : Condit, Paulsen, Leonard, Chapman, Ayres.

As a tryout for the U. V. M. meet an interclass meet will be held on Friday, May 9, and candidates will have a good chance to show their ability. The various classes have elected captains for their teams and two at least have elected managers as follows :

Captains : 1913, Culver ; 1914, Triggs ; 1915, Dade ; 1916, (not yet elected).

Managers : 1913, Pollard ; 1916, Salisbury.

Entries for the class meet must be handed in on or before May 2. Silver and bronze medals have been purchased for the interclass meet.

Class Day Plans.

Business at present is rushing in the senior class. Tuesday afternoon, April 22, the class day committee gave their nominations for commencement parts, a report which was unanimously accepted.

The exercises will be held on the campus according to custom, although the committee ventured to suggest an indoor performance.

General reports were given regarding the ball and the play for commencement week.

From Junior Week on, you will know a senior when you see him (or her) because he will be clad in a black flowing gown. Of the petition to the faculty it is hoped you will hear more later.

The class has formed the noble resolution to pay all debts before Commencement day so that the chairmen of the various committees, or in fact any 1913 graduate, may return to Middlebury freely and without molestation, being sure of a hearty welcome.

Connecticut Club.

A business meeting of the Connecticut Club was held in the Latin room at 3 o'lock on Friday, April 25. It was voted to have a banquet the night of May 7 and regard it as a preliminary feature of Junior Week. Power was given to the president to appoint various committees of arrangement.

THE FIRST BALL GAME OF THE SEASON.

"Midd" Defeated in Loosely Played Contest. College Attends in Force.

Vermont defeated the Varsity 11-8 on Centennial Field, Burlington, Vermont, Saturday, April 26. The game was decidedly loose. Errors in fielding and of judgment came frequently. Neither team played in mid-season form. A large crowd attended, part of which was made up of the 200 students who left Middlebury on the special. Nor should we forget the band which made a hit with the Vermonters.

Middlebury led off with a run, Jones hit to Captain Flaherty for what should have been an easy out, but Mr. Flaherty placed the ball in the Vermont crowd. "Casey's" ticket was to home.

Then Vermont started. Vail walked J. Barry; Flaherty and Frederick proved easy, both fanning. With two down, Dutton hit to Triggs, who failed to get his man. Then Weafer lost Mayforth's drive to third. S. Berry, the aged fatman who leases the right field for Vermont, proceeded to deliver a single. Two runs resulted. Vail walked Johnson. Then Smith landed for a three bagger. Gilbert drove in Smith with a single, J. Barry hit to Jones and Casey threw him out to first.

Things were a little cloudy for Middlebury, but the band hit up a lively air and Captain Williams ordered the men to get them back. "Don" Weafer was destined to lead off. He labelled it three bases, but his recent sickness forced him to slow up at second. Captain Flaherty selected Jones to run for him. Robinson received a pass. Captain "Harry" kept the ball moving with a two base hit. Loder hit to Smith for an out. Smith on the next play showed how not to do it, with the result that Vail rested on first. The score keeper had meantime hung up three more for the blue and white. Smith had some more trouble with Jones's hit. Leonard gave him another opportunity to climb into the fame column, but he preferred to let Jones reach second and Leonard beat the throw to first. Triggs added another error to Vermont's record. Vermont came to bat with the score six to seven against them. Vermont could do nothing, however.

Mayforth made a hit in the third and stole second, reaching home on Jones's error. The next inning produced no runs. Vermont replaced Gilbert with Malcolm in the fifth. The fifth and sixth innings left the score unchanged. Vermont entered the run column again in the seventh. Flaherty, the batting fiend, who had struck out twice, lined a dandy which was good for two bases. Trederick sacrificed. Dutton drew a three bagger and Captain Flaherty crossed the plate. Mayforth hit to Weafer, who gave him first. Dutton scored, Mayforth tried to play merry-go-round on S. Berry's play to Haskins, but "Harold" was right there with a beautiful throw to Weafer. "Weaf" was ready on his end also. Middlebury went to sleep in the eighth. Smith after fouling an innumerable number of times drove one to left field for four bases. Malcolm surprised everyone by getting a two bagger. One Berry interested the Middlebury contingent sufficiently to allow Malcolm to reach third. Flaherty reached first and started slowly for second. Middlebury played for him. Malcolm took advantage of it, making home easily. Trederick took three sickly swings and retired. Lamere batting for Jones, walked. Triggs produced the needed hit. Captain Flaherty made his third error. Lamere crossed the plate. Haskins hit a foul to the left fielder and the game was over.

Vail deserved to win. At no time did Vermont show superior team work or individual play. Malcolm proved effective and received better support than Gilbert. Haskins gave a pretty exhibition in throwing to third and getting his man after a fly into his territory.

Make your own choice as to fairies, milkmaids, queen's maidens, dryads, etc.; then come on May 28th and see how much you guessed right.

This Week's Games.

Boston College faces us to-morrow, May 1, on our diamond. During the past week Boston has been playing good ball. Rhode Island defeated her 5 to 4 in 10 innings, but it was a hard and interesting struggle. On May 2, Trinity on her northern trip, which includes a game with U. V. M. crosses bats with our warriors and it will be worth your time and money to see the contest. Here we have the line-up of both visitors :

Scientific Picnic.

On Saturday afternoon, April 26, some unfortunates who did not go to the "big game" enjoyed a semi-pleasure trip on the banks of the Otter. After a satisfying picnic lunch, a geological, biological, botanical investigation was made of the shore line for quite an extent and many interesting and valuable discoveries were made, including a specie of Testudinata.

The College Band.

Three cheers for our College Band! Took all the honors at the U. V. M. game, didn't they? That is a band worth having and Middlebury is mighty proud of it. Now and then, the close agony which issues forth from the men's chapel is far from delightful, especially if one is laboring long and hard in the pedagogy library or—the gruesome thought!—taking a "make-up". But next time it happens just remember that they are doing "evil that good may come".

Bless the band! It makes our defeats on the field easier to bear and our victories the more glorious. Practice on, squeak on, groan on at your rehearsals, for when you are ready to give us inspiration and encouragement at the games, you are right there every time. THE CAMPUS salutes you!

Attention!

THE CAMPUS desires to correct several mistakes which appeared in its last issue as to Commencement parts. The lists should read thus:

Commencement Day—Dale S. Atwood, Edgar A. Carrier, jr., Moses G. Hubbard, jr., Roy H. Walch, Bessie M. Cudworth, Alice A. Holmes, Eva A. Holt, Mildred A. Snow.

Class Day—Dale S. Atwood, President's Address; Wilfred E. Davison, Class Oration; Margaret Sharpe, Poem; Charles L. Smiddy, Ivy Oration; John C. Agnew, Irene A. Graves, Prophecy; Faith B. Linsley, History; Esther A. Boyce, Will and Presentation.

More Humorous Matter.

THE CAMPUS has been criticised because it contained so little humorous matter. This is one of the points where the editors need the co-operation of the whole student body. If something funny happens—something that everyone in college will be interested in—report it to the editors or, better still, write it up yourself. Consider for a moment the number of "bone head" answers that are given in class. Any one of those would make a "tickler" if it were printed.

The editors cannot obtain all this material first hand themselves. All the students must help. Keep watch for the jokes in class and out of class, hand them in to the editors, and you will find this an effective way of making your paper, THE CAMPUS, a more satisfactory one.

How About It?

Yes, the Gymnasium belongs to the college and you are a part of the college. Why, then, can't you use the Gym free of charge? Well, just think it over. If you as a class wanted to hold a play in the town hall you would pay for the use of the building with never a murmur, even though you are a part of the town. How is new scenery ever to be produced for the Gymnasium stage? Who would pay for the janitor's services on rehearsal nights? Remember, there are two sides to every story!

Smokers for Enthusiasm.

With everything progressing splendidly at Middlebury and the prospects of a successful base ball season, why should we not have elected a smoker manager and have smokers held each night before the base ball games? Would it not arouse college spirit and enthusiasm among the men and result in a greater number at the home games with a desire to help on their team to victory by their presence and ability to use their lungs?

Suffrage Barbeque.

The Suffrage Club entertained the Anti's at an enjoyable banquet Monday evening, April 28. The members, attired in the Suffrage colors, greeted the guests as they entered the dining room and graciously entertained them throughout the feast. The toast list follows:

Toastmistress, Helen A. Harriman
"Let us eat, drink and be merry,"
President Linsley
"For to-morrow we die,"
President Graves
"We smash hearts, not windows,"
Eleanor Hatch
"Yet the way to man's heart is thro his stomach,"
Bessie Cudworth
"A perfect woman, nobly planned to warn, to comfort, and command,"
Florine Parker

MOORE'S

THE ORIGINAL NON-LEAKABLE FOUNTAIN PEN

Always ready to write at the first stroke without shaking.

That is a vital point which is lacking in ordinary fountain pens. You can readily understand how this is made possible in a Moore when we explain that the pen when not in use lies submerged in ink which keeps it moist and prepared for instant writing, positively eliminating the necessity of shaking.

But that is not all of its strong features. The Moore can be carried in any position without the least fear of leaking. Has a large ink capacity. Always writes freely and evenly, and is easily filled.

Every Moore Non-Leakable Fountain Pen carries with it the most unconditional guarantee.

ALUMNI NOTES.

'90. Lucretius H. Ross, in company with Mrs. Ross, sailed on April 26 for an eight weeks' visit to Europe, visiting Paris, Holland, England, and Scotland. They are to tour England and Scotland in an auto.

'12. Brooks Smith, who is working for the Howe Scale Manufacturing Company of Rutland, was in town over Sunday, April 27.

'12. Ruth Hill visited college April 26.

Y. W. C. A.

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held Wednesday afternoon, April 23. Miss Walbridge, '15, was the leader. The subject was "Am I My Brother's Keeper"? There were interesting discussions of the subject both by the leader and members in attendance. Miss Mills, '15, gave a piano solo.

"The Importance of Little Things", was the subject for April 30. Miss Blakeman, '14, was the leader and Miss Slocum, '13, gave a piano solo.

Miss Mary Corbett, field secretary of the Y. W C. A., is expected to visit Middlebury the third and fourth of May.

Thank You!

The Anti-Suffragists desire to thank the Suffragist Club for entertaining them with place cards, menu cards, and decorations at our regular evening meal at Battell hall on Monday night, April 28th.

Tennis News.

The tennis courts are being slowly rounded into shape and one is in fairly good condition, several sets having been played upon it by both men and women. The central court, however, is very "slow" and soggy and will take considerable work before it is in decent shape. The manager has been arranging for a couple of tournaments with U. V. M., one to be played at each institution. The date, June 7, has been chosen for the struggle in Middlebury, and the contest in Burlington will probably be played on the 31st of May, but the date has not yet been definitely decided upon.

To Be Ready is Half the Game.

The all-important work of getting ready for athletic victories has been going merrily on and everything ls in ship-shape condition. The base ball diamond is as smooth as a pool table and the infield skids round on its polished surface in a most encouraging way. Cinders have been put on the new track on Porter field and the next thing we know we will have a whole batch of new records and a reputation that will make S. L. U. turn pale. Am I right? Sure thing.

Are You Coming? Sure!

From seven o'clock on the evening of May 9th until two o'clock on the morning of May 10th the Juniors will give their "Prom" in the McCullough gymnasium. Barring statements due to their personal prejudice on the question, the 1914 people really are planning to give the college a jolly good dance with Wilson's orchestra from Rutland to furnish music. Decorations and dance orders will be unusually good, but we must say no more. Come and see it for yourselves.

President H. S. Pritchett of the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of Teaching will visit Middlebury College on Friday, May 2. He will address the Faculty and students in the evening at the McCullough Gymnasium. Everybody is urged to be present.

The Freshman Debating team which faces Norwich on Saturday, May 3, has been drilling constantly under the guiding hand of Professor Wetherell and now feels ready to meet the foe and give him battle.

The money appropriated by the Women's Athletic Association has been used to splendid advantage, and the lawn around Pearsons presents a very spring-like appearance in its new array of shrubs and trees.

Professor Morgan gave a talk before the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening, April 15. His subject was "Some Aspects of Human Freedom".

The dance that was arranged for Thursday, April 24, has been postponed indefinitely.
